

ENSURE FLUSHES IN PUBLIC TOILETS WORK

 WITH the H1N1 flu outbreak, it is an appropriate time to address the issue of the cleanliness of public toilets.

If toilets were clean, users would be more likely to keep them that way.

Aside from ensuring that public toilets have soap dispensers and toilet paper, checks should be made on cistern flushes to ensure that they work.

Mr Chua Hock Thiam