

June 3, 2007

Have card access to toilets

I REFER to the letter, 'Smokers puff away in toilets for disabled' (ST, May 26), by Ms Jillian Woon Sook Yin.

It is sad that there are still such people around.

Is it possible to install a system, such as a contactless card like ez-link, for the disabled?

They could use such cards to unlock toilet cubicles meant for them, thus preventing misuse by others.

Chua Wee Kirk