

Honest janitor

“He had found my watch and left it at the information counter for collection.”

MR NICOLAS MOULIN: “Last Friday, I was at Changi Airport Terminal 2 coming back from a business trip, and I accidentally left my watch in the restroom just before jumping into a cab. When I returned to the airport about 15 minutes later, I met Mr Khamis Salleh, the janitor, who informed me that he had found my watch and left it at the information counter for collection. I would like to thank Mr Khamis for his integrity and sense of responsibility.”
