

Impressed by China's Olympic efforts

I refer to last Sunday's article, "Beijing's loos geared up for Olympics – with soap and toilet paper".

I am impressed and touched by the earnest efforts of the Chinese people and leaders: the magnificent buildings built, the waterways cleared, the sanitary conditions vastly improved, and the hearts of the Chinese people united – much like the unity we Singaporeans show on National Day.

Chiam Che Lin