

MY VIEWS IN

6 SECONDS

APPALLING TOILETS WITH 'OK' LABELS

 THE state of many public toilets, especially those in coffeeshops and hawker centres, leaves much to be desired. Besides stains and smell, liquid soap and paper towels are also absent.

Some of these toilets even display the "Singapore OK" label, which means they have met certain hygiene standards. Can the National Environment Agency please do something about these toilets and the labels?

Mr Nelson Quah